HAROLD KATZ OWNER

Harold and Peggy Katz

Harold Katz got to where he is today the hard way. He worked for it. Born and raised in Philadelphia, Harold Katz hung up his basketball shoes after high school to run the family's grocery store when his father died. Even though he was no longer able to play basketball, his heart longed for the competitiveness and spirit of the game. After three years in the grocery business, Katz decided to branch out to enter other business endeavors. In 1972 he invested $20,000 in a weight loss program known as Nutri/System. He opened his first center in Willow Grove, a suburb of Philadelphia, and opened a second shortly afterward. After these centers showed impressive profits, Katz decided to move into franchising.

In 1977, he increased the company's sales even more when he had a succession of healthy, pre-packaged, pre-measured diet foods, sold exclusively to Nutri/System customers. He sold his interests in the diet firm in 1986 when it was the largest medically supervised weight control company in the world, with over 700 company-owned and franchised centers nationwide .

His first interest, however, remained in basketball and his life long pursuit of the sport grew continuously. He remained a loyal season ticket holder for many years with the 76ers, hoping one day to own Philadelphia's professional team. As his business life continued to prosper, his dream became a reality July 15, 1981 when he purchased the 76ers from Fitz Eugene Dixon. From that first day, Katz worked relentlessly at obtaining something that eluded the Sixers since 1967, a National Basketball Association championship. With his sharp business mind and basketball knowledge, Katz brought the NBA crown back to the city in 1983 and the team has had a marked success in profits the last four years.

Besides being sole owner of the 76ers, Katz is actively involved in numerous charitable and philanthropic affairs. He has assumed roles of leadership in B'nai B'rith, the March of Dimes, Jewish Y's, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and the Special Olympics. He also has headed fund raising drives for organizations such as the National Kidney Foundation and the Fellowship Commission of Philadelphia.

DAVID KATZ
Vice President

Katz accepted his new position of vice president in August 1989. Prior to his new position, Katz was the director of marketing for the ball club. He began his career with the 76ers as the director of community relations in 1986-87, handling all player appearances and social function planning. Besides being involved with the 76ers, Katz is also president of Innovative Staffing Services, a company that supplies health care organizations with temporary nursing services. He also runs the 76ers Basketball Camp in the Poconos and is President of the Sixers Score Foundation, a non-profit organization that raises funds for specific charities in the Delaware Valley. Katz, 26, is single and resides in Northampton Township, PA.

GENE SHUE
GENERAL MANAGER

Gene Shue became the fifth General Manager in 76ers history when he was named July 24, 1990. As the fourth winningest coach in NBA history (784 wins, 861 losses) Shue knows what it takes to win. With 23 seasons as an NBA coach under his belt, he joins Bill Fitch, Don Nelson and Cotton Fitzsimmons as the only head coaches in NBA history to be named "Coach-of-the-Year," twice.

Shue started his professional coaching career with the then Baltimore Bullets in 1966-67. He transformed the Bullets from a team with the worst record in the league (20-61), to the best record (57-25) in only two seasons, and won his first NBA "Coach-of-the-Year" award. Two seasons later he had the Bullets playing in the NBA championship.

In his six-year tenure with Baltimore, he won four division titles and made five playoff appearances. He left following the 1972-73 season and took the challenge of turning around the Philadelphia 76ers, who in the previous season prior to his arrival, had a 9-73 record, the worst in the history of the league.

His record of success continued with Philadelphia, where in four seasons he led the 76ers to a 50-win season, and a trip to the NBA championship finals in 1976-77. He was replaced as the 76ers coach after six games of his fifth season with Philadelphia by Billy Cunningham. He posted a 157-177 mark with Philadelphia.

After departing Philadelphia, Shue was named coach of the San Diego Clippers. There he guided a team that was 27-55 the season before as the Buffalo Braves, to a 43-39 record.

Following the 1979-80 season he left San Diego to return to the Washington Bullets. In his second season with Washington, Shue coached the team to a 43-39 record and won "Coach-of-the-Year" honors a second time. He remained with the Bullets for five seasons, leading them to a 232-248 record.

Shue first broke into the league when he was drafted in the first round (3rd selection overall) by the Philadelphia Warriors out of the University of Maryland. He was twice named to the NBA's All-Pro team, and was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game five times. In his 10-year playing career, he averaged 14.4 points per game.

Born Dec. 18, 1931, Shue and his wife, Sandy, live in the South New Jersey area.

GERRY RYAN
BUSINESS MANAGER

Gerry Ryan has been the club's Business Manager since July 1987. He overseas the business end of the franchise including accounting, broadcasting, marketing, promotions, public relations, ticketing and game-night operations. He directs the team's efforts in controlling the ever-increasing costs of running an NBA franchise.

Ryan joined the 76ers staff in 1980 as a ticket manager, a position he held until moving to his current position. Prior to coming to the 76ers, Ryan was employed by Spectacor and worked with the team from his position in the Spectrum's office. Ryan also is the Vice-President of the Sixers Score Foundation, a non-profit organization that raises funds for various charitable organizations in the Delaware Valley.

He is a graduate of St. Joseph's University, where he majored in business management and marketing. Ryan and his wife, Jane, reside with their four children in Havertown, PA.

JIM LYNAM
HEAD COACH

Jim Lynam begins his fourth full season as the Sixers head coach after guiding the club to a 44-38 record last year. Lynam had his hands full trying to defend the Atlantic Division crown after starting point guard, Johnny Dawkins, went down with a season ending knee injury in only the fourth game. Even without Dawkins, Lynam was able to pilot the team to a second place finish behind the Boston Celtics.

Entering the playoffs, many critics expected the Sixers to fall in the first round to the Milwaukee Bucks in a best-of-five series. Lynam had other plans. The Sixers swept the Bucks in three straight and now had to face the Chicago Bulls. The Sixers lost to the eventual NBA Champions in a best-of-seven series 4-1, but played the Bulls tough in every contest.

The 1989-90 season was Lynam's most successful as he coached the team to a 53-29 record and won the Atlantic Division. For his efforts he was second in Coach-of-the-Year balloting. It was the Sixers first division title since winning the NBA championship in 1983 and their first 50-win season since 1986. The 76ers rewarded Lynam for his coaching efforts when the club gave him a two-year contract extension, Sept. 25, 1990.

Lynam became the Philadelphia 76ers ninth head coach on February 8, 1988 (13th in the history of the franchise) when he replaced Matt Guokas. He managed to guide the 1987-88 injury plagued club to a 16-23 mark for the remainder of the campaign. He boasts a 159-126 mark as coach of the 76ers.

Lynam joined the 76ers organization on June 17, 1985 when he was named assistant coach, filling the spot vacated when Matt Guokas was elevated to the head coaching position. He went on to become Guokas' senior aid and right hand man. He also directed the 76ers' Princeton Summer League squads in 1985 and 1986. Lynam joined the 76ers with four years of professional coaching experience. He served as an assistant for his former mentor, Jack Ramsay, in Portland in 1981-82, and then head coach of the San Diego/Los Angeles Clippers from 1983 to 1985. In his first season with the Clippers he posted a mark of 30-52, and was replaced the following season, 61 games into that season with a 22-39 record.

His college head coaching career covered 10 seasons (158-118 record with a .572 winning percentage). His career included two seasons at Fairfield University (23-29), five seasons at American University (70-61), and three at St. Joseph's University (65-28). Lynam's .699 winning percentage at St. Joseph's is the second best in school history, behind only Jack Ramsay. During his stint with the Hawks, they made two NIT appearances and were Mid-East runner-up in the 1981 NCAA Basketball Tournament following a shocking last second upset of top ranked DePaul.

Lynam played three seasons at St. Joseph's under Ramsay where he averaged 12.2 points per game. A member of the St. Joseph's and Philadelphia Big Five Hall of Fames, Lynam was born September 15, 1941 and currently resides in Media with his wife, Kay, and their children.

FRED CARTER
ASSISTANT COACH

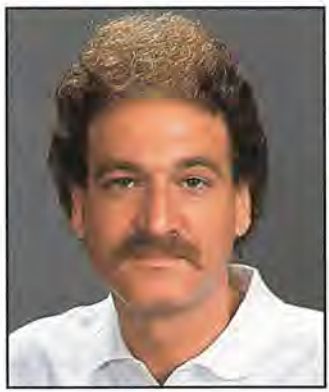
Carter begins his fifth season as a 76ers assistant coach. He joined the 76ers as an assistant coach under Matt Guokas June 1, 1987, returning to the team where he played for six seasons (409 games, 7,673 points, 1,826 rebounds, and 1,720 assists) from 1971-1977. Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Carter served as an assistant to Kevin Loughery in Washington with the Bullets and also served as an assistant with Loughery in Chicago and Atlanta.

He originally was a third round draft pick of the then Baltimore Bullets where he played two and a half seasons before being traded along with Loughery to the 76ers in 1971. Carter played eight seasons in the NBA, scoring 9,271 points for a 15.2 points per game average, including three seasons when he averaged over 20 points per game. He ended his playing career with Milwaukee.

Carter captained three 76ers' squads, including the 9-73 club of 1972-73. He was tagged with the moniker "Mad Dog" by teammate Ray Scott following a defensive drill when Scott said, "That guy is madder than a dog."

A 1971 graduate of St. Mary's College, Carter coached the women's squad at the Mount before entering the professional coaching ranks. Born February 14, 1945, Carter and his wife, Jacqueline, reside with their six children in Blue Bell, PA.

BUZZ BRAMAN
SHOOTING INSTRUCTOR



Braman joined the 76ers as a shooting instructor September 8, 1989. Prior to joining the team, he worked with the Detroit Pistons, Orlando Magic, Cleveland Cavaliers and the LA Lakers. Braman began his own instructional career in 1987 when he created 'Sure Shot,' a program based in Coral Springs, FL, designed to help individuals improve their shooting skills.

He worked as a shooting coach at the University of Maryland later that year. He joined the Terps midway through the 1987-88 season when the team was shooting 61 percent from the free throw line and by season's end, had improved the team's percentage to 73 percent.

Braman can lay claim to being one of the deadliest shooters of the game. Once, he made 738 consecutive free throws and also made 246 of 250 shots from college three-point distance. His shooting has been featured on WTBS. Braman was an All-American guard at Springbrook HS in Silver Spring, MD, before starring at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC. He and his wife, Jamie, have two sons and reside in Voorhees, NJ.

TONY DILEO
PLAYER PERSONNEL DIRECTOR/ASSISTANT COACH

The 76ers did not have to look far in their search for a successor to Bob Weinhauer. After Weinhauer's departure to become an assistant coach with the Atlanta Hawks, 76ers management needed only a quick glimpse in-house to realize the right man was Tony DiLeo.

Dileo, 36, was a scout for the 76ers before his promotion. His new duties will include scouting opponents and collegiate prospects, and for keeping a check on the European leagues.

Keeping an eye on the European leagues should present little problem for DiLeo. He played and coached in West Germany for 10 seasons before joining the Sixers as a scout last season. He coached mens and womens teams from 1979 through 1990 and won nine national titles in that country's top division. He was selected as the West German Basketball Federation National Coach, 1981-85 and was the country's coach of the year in 1987. He also was an international scout for Marty Blake, the NBA's director of scouting services.

Besides coaching, DiLeo also finds the time to be an author, publisher and inventor. In 1984, DiLeo wrote and published European Basketball Handbook, a book designed to accommodate American players overseas. He also wrote a detailed manual in 1989 on the rule differences between the Federation International Basketball Association (FIBA), the NBA and the NCAA. Currently, DiLeo has a patent pending for his invention of "Inflatable inner padding for basketball shoes."

He played basketball at Cinnaminson High School in New Jersey, Tennessee Tech and LaSalle University. As a senior in 1977 he was a First-Team Academic All-American player when Paul Westhead was the coach.

DiLeo and his wife, Anna, have one son, Anthony David (1), and reside in Cinnaminson, NJ.

TRAINER

Whenever a player goes down with an injury on the court, the first person to arrive at the player's side is Tony Harris. He is the man responsible for relieving the aches and pains athletes suffer during the rigors of playing professional basketball.

In addition to his training and physical care duties for the 76ers players, he acts as the team's traveling coordinator. He is responsible for all the travel and hotel accommodations while the team is on the road.

Harris, 35, was named as the trainer September 19, 1989. He began his mark in the professional ranks when he was named assistant trainer for the Seattle Mariners spring training camp in 1980-82. He joined the NBA's Phoenix Suns rookie camp, where he was an assistant trainer under Joe Proski in 1981. That same season he was the head trainer at The John MacLeod Summer Basketball Camp. Harris was a part-time assistant trainer for the Indianapolis Colts in 1984-86 and had been the physical therapist and athletic trainer to the Fort Wayne Flames Soccer Club and to the Fort Wayne Komets Hockey Club in 1988-89.

Harris received his bachelor's degree in physical education and education at Baker University in Baldwin City, KS. He received his master's degree in physical therapy at the University of Indianapolis, IN.

Born Feb. 29, 1956, Harris and his wife, Diane, have four children and reside in Havertown, PA.

JACK RAMSAY
PRISM Cable Color Commentary

Jack Ramsay returns for his third season as PRISM's analyst for all home games.

Ramsay's 864 regular season coaching victories place him second on the all-time NBA list behind former Boston Celtics coach Red Auerbach. In 20 full seasons as an NBA coach, Ramsay made the playoffs 16 times and won a world championship with the Portland Trailblazers in 1976-77. His 1,208 lifetime victories—a figure that includes his victories as a high school coach—-make him one of the winningest coaches in basketball history.

A Native Philadelphian, Ramsay attended St. Joseph's University and captained the basketball team, earning all-Philadelphia honors.

Ramsay's legendary coaching career began in 1949 at St. James High School in Chester, PA. In 1955, he became head coach at St. Joseph's and led his alma mater to a 23-6 record, a Big Five championship, and a trip to the National Invitational Tournament, the school's first post-season tourney.

In 1966, Ramsay became general manager of the Philadelphia 76ers, and that same year, the club won 68 games and went on to win the NBA world championship. That team is considered by many to be the greatest NBA team ever. Ramsay became the 76ers head coach in the 1968-69 season. His 55-27 mark as a rookie NBA coach began a string of coaching jobs with NBA team that included the Buffalo Braves (1972-76); the Portland Trailblazers (1976-86), and the Indiana Pacers (1986-88).

The author of two books, Pressure Basketball and The Coach's Art, Ramsay earned masters and Ph.D. degrees in education from the University of Pennsylvania. He is also an accomplished triathlete.

Ramsay and his wife, Jean, have three daughters and two sons, and reside in Ocean City, New Jersey.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Single game credentials must be requested no later than 24 hours prior to game day and 5:30 p.m. on Friday for weekend games. First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the same deadline via mail or fax at (215) 339-7632. Press and photographic credentials are issued to fully accredited members of the media and permit the bearer access to the working press areas, locker room, and press lounge. Credentials will be left at the press "will call" window, which is located at the Spectrum's gate #1, upper level on the Veterans Stadium side of the building. Credentials are non-transferable. The media room and press row at courtside are limited to working media members only with a valid 76ers credential. We cannot accommodate family, friends or guests. Any abuse of press credentials will cause forfeiture of the credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo work space is extremely limited and your cooperation is requested in adhering to the 76ers guidelines. Still and television photographers are limited in floor access, in front of the press tables at both ends of the court. Court ends opposite the press tables are not photo areas. There are also photo areas reserved in the upper press box and throughout the building. Contact the public relations office for more information regarding these areas. Every photographer must have a photo pass to gain court access. Photographers possessing season passes should pick up a game photo pass in the press room. Photographers requesting daily passes will have the photo pass left at the press "will call" window.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with the NBA policy, the 76ers locker room will be open to the media 45 minutes prior to tip-off, and 10 minutes after the game has been completed. Only persons possessing a media credential will be admitted to the locker room.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Game notes will be available in the press room of the Spectrum one hour prior to tip-off. We will make every attempt to get visiting media members their notes earlier in the day at their hotel. If you are not staying with the team, please give your hotel location to the public relations office to allow prompt routing of notes. Play-by-play, halftime and final boxes will be distributed to all media members.

FAX AND TELEPHONE SERVICE: The 76ers have a limited number of telephones available to working press members. There is one telephone at each press table on the court. Access numbers are available through the 76ers public relations office. The 76ers provide complimentary fax service for all working media members. Final boxscores are dispersed immediately following the game. Please see someone from the public relations office to make the necessary arrangements.

RADIO AND TELEVISION COVERAGE: The Philadelphia radio home of the 76ers and flagship station of the Philadelphia 76ers Radio Network, is 610-WIP AllSports Radio. All 41 home games will be televised on PRISM except for February 16 versus Detroit and March 8 versus Chicago, both of which will be seen nationally on NBC-TV. NBC-TV (locally KYW-TV 3) may also choose to televise the Milwaukee game on April 12. The 41 road games will be either televised on PRISM, SportsChannel Philadelphia, or WPHL-TV 17. OLAJUWON AGAIN TOPS NBA'S 20-20 CLUB

Hakeem Olajuwon topped the NBA's 20-20 club last year in posting 20 or more points and rebounds in the same game. He did it six times after doing it 8 times in 1989-90 (Robert Parish 5 in 1988-89, Olajuwon 6 in 1987-88, Charles Barkley 11 in 1986-87). David Robinson did it 3 times, Patrick Ewing, Otis Thorpe, Rony Seikaly and Sam Bowie twice each. Derrick Coleman, Armon Gilliam, Karl Malone, Buck Williams, Ken Norman, Barkley, Dennis Rodman, Benoit Benjamin, Parish, Charles Oakley and Brad Daugherty did it once. Thus, 16 players did it 28 times (14-28 in 1989-90, 16-28 in 1988-89, and 12-31 in 1987-88.) Four other players made the 20-20 club by hitting 20 points and 20 assists in a game. Magic Johnson, John Stockton and Scott Skiles each did it twice and Kevin Johnson once.

5 INDIANA HOOSIER STARTERS MAKE NBA

As far as anyone can ascertain the NCAA champion Indiana Hoosiers of 1976 are the only team to send all five starters into the NBA. Four of the players were drafted in the 1976 draft and the fifth, junior center Kent Benson, was drafted in 1977 by Milwaukee on the first round. The other picks in 1976 were first round selections Quinn Buckner (Milwaukee), Scott May (Chicago) and Bob Wilkerson (Seattle) plus third round choice Tom Abernethy (LA Lakers).

BARKLEY AGAIN LEAGUE'S BEST 2PT. FG SHOOTER 1990-91

Many folks like Pat Riley claim the NBA's field goal percentage is misleading because it combines 2 and 3 pt. attempts. So we took the 91 players who attempted 50 or more 3 pt. field goals and subtracted these attempts from their overall totals to produce their 2 point field goal average. No.1 for the sixth straight year was Charles Barkley with a 61.4 ave., the leader by 3.9 over Reggie Miller (57.5), John Paxson (57.1), Terry Porter (56.4), Chris Mullin (56.0), Mark Price (55.6), Michael Jordan (55.1), Rod Higgins (54.9), Sidney Moncrief (54.5), Kenny Smith (54.5) and John Stockton (54.1). The wort of the group was George McCloud (38.8) followed by Danny Young (40.1) and Ron Harper (40.8). All but two players had a better average minus the 3 pointers. The exceptions were Jim Les whose average dropped 2.3 (44.4 to 42.1) and Steve Kerr 0.3 (44.4 to 44.1) minus the three pointers. The biggest increases were Rod Higgins 8.6 (46.3 to 54.9), Michael Adams 6.5 (39.4 to 45.9), Miller 6.3 (51.2 to 57.5), Brad Lohaus 6.2 (43.1 to 49.3) and Moncrief (48.8 to 54.5).

SIXERS LEADS AND DEFICITS 1990-1991

An analysis of the 76ers log last year shows there were two games in 1990-91 when the 76ers never had a lead (1/19 vs. New York and 2/14 at Sacramento). Conversely, there were three games in which foes never had a lead (12/7 by Denver, 1/12 by New Jersey and 3/20 by Detroit). The biggest Sixers lead of the season was 31 points (124-93) in the fourth period at Miami 12/21. They had seven other games in which their lead was in the twenties. The Sixers worst deficit was 35 points (141-106) in the fourth quarter at Milwaukee 11/8. They also had two other games with 30-points deficits and 9 others with disadvantages in the 20-point realm.

POSITION BREAKDOWN OF 1990-1991 PLAYERS

There were 397 players in the NBA last season and by position they broke down to 140 guards, 130 forwards, and 58 centers. There also were 35 forward-centers, 22 guard-forwards, 6 center-forwards, and 6 forward-guards.

DOUBLE FIGURE SCORING

Seven players were able to score double figures in every game they played during the 1990-91 season, led by Michael Jordan of Chicago, Chris Mullin of Golden State and Karl Malone of Utah who all were 82 of 82. Michael Jordan extended his streak of scoring double figures to 419 games. Michael has scored in double figures every game over the last five seasons, plus the final 10 games of the 1985-86 season, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. That is the longest current streak. Patrick Ewing owns the second longest streak at 208 games. Both Michael and Patrick have a long way to go to get to Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record 787 straight games.

3 PLAYERS WITH ALMOST IDENTICAL LAST NAMES

It may not be true during the 1991-92 season, but in 1990-91 there were three players who had six letter last names who had the same first, third, fourth and sixth letters in their names. Only the second and fourth were different. Stumped? Try Steve Henson, Roy Hinson and Bobby Hansen.

LOWS SINCE 24-SECOND CLOCK

Since the 24-second clock was introduced into the NBA in 1954-55 season, the lowest scoring regular season game was a 62-57 victory by Boston over Milwaukee on February 27, 1955 at Providence. In this game the floor was atop ice and the moisture came through the boards to make running hazardous. The total of 119 is the low and so are the 57 points by Milwaukee (now the Atlanta Hawks). The lowest scoring playoff game found Ft. Wayne beating Syracuse, 74-71, April 7, 1955 at Indianapolis. The total of 145 points and the 71 by Syracuse are the lows. Sacramento scored 59 at Charlotte Jan. 10, 1991; Buffalo 63 vs. Milwaukee Oct. 21, 1972; Chicago 65 at Phoenix, Mar. 6, 1975; Cleveland 67, Nov. 19, 1977, Dallas 68, Feb. 4, 1981, Phoenix 68, Mar. 8, 1981, New Jersey 68 at Utah, Nov. 27, 1989, and Indiana 64 at New York, December 10, 1985. The 55 FGA by the 76ers vs. Atlanta on 4/1/88 were lowest since 24-second clock was instituted.

SHUE NBA'S ALLTIME LEADER IN GAMES PLAYED OR COACHED

Gene Shue is in a class by himself when it comes to participation in NBA games since the league's inception in 1946-47. Gene has taken part in 2,460 games broken down this way. He played in 736 games in 10 years (699 regular season, 32 playoffs and 5 All-Star) and coached 22 years in 1724 games (1645 regular season, 77 playoff, and 2 All-Stars). Of course the No. 1 player is Kareem Abdul Jabbar but his alltime total including 1560 regular season, 237 playoffs and 18 All-Stars is just 1815, 645 behind Shue. Coaches like Dick Motta and Jack Ramsay have many coaching games but never played in the league.

HISTORY OF NBA POINT DIFFERENTIAL

The chart below shows the history of the point differential for all 27,359 regular season games played in the NBA since its origin in the 1946-47 season. It shows the number of times each point difference (margin of victory) occurred and also what percentage of all games played, ended with that difference, as researched by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows that at least one game ended in a difference from 1 through 56 and also that a two point difference has occurred the most times (1959). There have been 18 games with point differences in the 50's and 60's including the March 19, 1972 game in which the LA Lakers beat Golden State 162-99 for the largest margin of victory (63 points) in NBA history. More than one of every four games are decided by four points or less and nearly 53¼ percent of all games end with a margin of nine points or less.

ONLY 7 CURRENT COACHES WON COACH OF YEAR LAURELS

Of the current 27 coaches, only seven have won NBA Coach of the Year laurels. Don Nelson in 1982-83 and 1984-85; Dick Motta in 1970-71; Cotton Fitzsimmons in 1978-79 and 1988-89, Don Chany in 1990-91, Pat Riley in 1989-90, Mike Schuler in 1986-87, and Bill Fitch in 1975-76 and 1979-80 comprise the group. None of them won the NBA titles the year they were selected. The only 3 coaches to win Coach of the Year the same year they won the NBA title were Bill Sharman, Lakers, 1971-72; Red Holzman, New York, 1969-70 and Red Auerbach, Boston, 1964-65.

HISTORY OF THE 76ers

Professional basketball in its modern phase has had two stages in this city. The first section comprised the career of the Warriors between 1946 and 1962 and saw two titles come here — 1947 when the immortal Joe Fulks hit his heights and 1956 in Tom Gola's rookie season.

The Warriors were transferred to San Francisco after the 1961-62 campaign. Irv Kosloff and the late Ike Richman, however, teamed to purchase the Syracuse Nats in the spring of 1963 and bring the franchise here. The team was renamed 76ers and Dolph Schayes was named coach for the 1963-64 season.

Dolph piloted the team for three seasons and in his final year he steered the 76ers to the Eastern Division title aided by the addition of Wilt Chamberlain who came in January 1965 in a deal with San Francisco. Alex Hannum became the coach in 1966-67 and led the team to a 68-13 record and the NBA title.

Hannum steered the team to its third straight Eastern Division title in 1967-68, and then the Jack Ramsay regime began. Ramsay had been the club's GM during Hannum's two years as coach and when Hannum left after the 1967-68 season, Jack assumed the coaching duties — along with his GM chores. He didn't have Chamberlain who was traded to Los Angeles, but still managed to finish second in the division that year.

Ramsay relinquished the GM role to Don DeJardin just before the start of the 1970-71 season and confined his efforts to coaching for two seasons. For 1972-73 Roy Rubin succeeded Ramsay until the All-Star game break when Kevin Loughery supplanted him. Gene Shue was named coach on June 15, 1973 and started the club's resurgence in the 1973-74 campaign. Pat Williams became the club's GM in August 1974. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr. purchased the club from Kosloff in May 1976. Julius Erving was secured on October 21, 1976 and the team won the Atlantic Division title and lost in the NBA finals.

On November 4, 1977, Billy Cunningham replaced Shue as coach and led team to Atlantic Division title and to the Eastern Conference finals. In 1979-80 and 1981-82 Billy piloted the team to the NBA finals and in 1982-83 to the NBA championship. Lou Scheinfeld was appointed president of the club on January 30, 1980, and relinquished duties on June 1, 1981. Harold Katz purchased the club July 9, 1981, the sale was approved on Sept. 21 by the NBA and became final on Sept. 24, 1981. Matt Guokas replaced Cunningham as coach on June 14, 1985. John Nash replaced Pat Williams as GM on June 25, 1986. Jim Lynam replaced Guokas as coach Feb. 8, 1988. Gene Shue replaced John Nash as GM on July 24, 1990.

BLACKMAN CURRENT LEADER WITH NO FOULOUTS

Rolando Blackman has played 790 games and has never fouled out for the leadership of all active NBA players who never have fouled out of a game. Other streaks are Randy Wittman 519, Steve Colter 469, Danny Young 440, John Battle 416, Dell Curry 337, Leon Wood 274, Steve Alford 169, and Jeff Grayer, Pooh Richardson, and Avery Johnson all 164. Five NBA teams failed to make the playoffs the year after they were in the championship finals. The 1968-69 Boston team was the only one to win the title and then fail to make the playoffs the following year. The others were St. Louis 1960-61, failing in 1961-62; San Francisco 1963-64, failing in 1964-65 after selling Will Chamnberlain to the 76ers, Milwaukee 1973-74, failing in 1974-75; and Phoenix 1975-76, failing in 1976-77.

NETS, HEAT PACESETTERS IN 1991-92 BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

New Jersey and Miami are No.1 in the 1991-92 season with 25 back-to-back games closely followed by the 76ers and Orlando with 24 each and Cleveland, Charlotte and Chicago with 23 apiece. There will be 566 back-to-back games this year (597 in 1990-91, 582 in 1989-90, 565 in 1988-89 and 497 in 1987-88). Houston for second straight year has the least with 14 followed by Atlanta with 17. Detroit in March and Denver in April are the only teams without a twosome in any month. Houston and Utah with two apiece head the 11 times a team only has one back-to backer. The most in any month is eight by Phoenix in November, which for the fourth year in a row is the month with the most (132). April of course has the least with 49, a drop of 24 from last season.

ROBINSON BEST AT TURNING TEAM AROUND

Since the territorial draft was abolished, the No. 1 draft choices have had varying success in turning teams around. The best was Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul Jabbar) when Milwaukee had a 27-55 record in 1968-69 and then went to 56-26 in Alcindor's first year for a rise of 29. Next best was Elvin Hayes with plus 22. However, David Robinson was the No. 1 choice in 1987, didn't play until 1989-90 and San Antonio went from 21-61 to 56-26, a 35 game turnaround for the best boost. Mychal Thompson has the dubious distinction of being the No. 1 pick to have his team post a worse record, Portland going from 58-24 to 45-37 in his rookie campaign. Pervis Ellison was the No. 1 pick in 1989 and Sacramento dropped from 27-55 to 23-59. Last year Derrick Coleman was No.1 and New Jersey rose from 17-65 to 26-56.The only one to win an NBA title was Magic Johnson with a plus 13 in the 1979-80 season.

The NBA champion that made the biggest improvement in games won the year after winning the title was Golden State in 1975-76 which improved by 11 games (48 wins to 59) to lead the pack. The Warriors are only one of 18 champions who improved. Twenty-four other champions had worse records while two titleholders matched their victory totals exactly. Other big improvements were 10 by 1979 Seattle; 9 by 1977 Portland; 8 by 1952 Minneapolis and 1958 St. Louis; 7 by 1949 Minneapolis and 1959 Boston; 6 by 1966 Boston and 5 by 1957 Boston. The worst drop was by the 1969 champion Boston team which won 48 games in taking the crown and dropped to 34 wins the following year. Other big drops were 15 by the 1983 76ers, 10 by 1976 Boston, 9 by 1972 Los Angeles and 1990 Detroit and 8 by 1947 and 1956 Philadelphia; 1955 Syracuse; 1965 and 1986 Boston and 1970 New York.

ANALYSIS OF NBA'S QUARTER SCORING 1990-91

The following charts show the quarter scoring for and against NBA teams in 1990-91. Denver topped the league in scoring in every quarter except overtime where the 76ers led. Sacramento scored the least points in first periods and overtime, Dallas in the 2nd, New Jersey in the 3rd and Washington in the 4th. There were 1052 periods (153 more than last year) in which less than 20 points were scored and 163 periods (58 more than last year) in which 40 points or more were tallied. Denver had the least (11) sub 20-point periods and Sacramento the most (70). Denver had 22 40-point periods and Detroit none. On the defensive end, Detroit limited foes to under 20 points on 65 occasions (just like last year), and Denver just 7. As for 40-point quarters, 39 Denver foes did it (25 more than Orlando last year), while Cleveland and Detroit only allowed one rival to do it. You'll note more (288) sub 20-point periods came in the second quarter again and the least (248) in the first again. The most 40-point periods (45) came in both the 1st and 4th periods and the least (32) in the second. Chicago won the most quarters (193), Denver the least (106) and Phoenix and Houston tied the most (23). Portland had the best record after leading at the end of the first quarter (42-5), Boston (43-5) at halftime and the LA Lakers after three (49-2).

NBA PLAYOFF WINNING MARGINS — 1946-47 THRU 1990-91

There have been 1809 playoff games played since the league's origin in the 1946-47 season. The total point difference of those 1809 games between winner score and loser score adds up to 18,590 points. That's an average of 10.28 points per game according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows the number of times each point difference has occurred in playoff history. As in regular season games, a two point difference has occurred the most times (135). These totals include 10 special playoff games which were played to break ties in regular season final standings and, thus, determine playoff opponents. Three playoff games have concluded with a margin of 50 or more points, including the March 19, 1956 games in which the Minneapolis Lakers beat the St. Louis Hawks, 133-75 for the largest victory margin (58 points) in NBA playoff history.

DOMINANCE INDEX RATINGS

Many years ago Sports Illustrated Magazine devised a Novel Dominance Index with the idea of showing via points how much a team dominated a season. To secure the figure for each team, the championship team's average margin of victory is divided by the margin of victory of the second best team. In some cases, the team with the best win and loss record didn't have the best margin of victory. All this deals with the regular season action and, naturally, there are many cases where the team with the best regular season record failed to win the playoffs. The best team according to this system is the 1955-56 Warriors which had a 4.3 victory margin against an 0.7 differential for next best Boston. The best margin of victory was 12.3 for Los Angeles in 1971-72.

LENGTH OF NBA'S 1990-91 GAMES

This chart shows how long it took to play the league's 1107 games in the 1990-91 season. For each team it shows the total minutes of its games, home, away and overall; the length of a game broken down into hours (1:55.9 means 1 hr. 55.9 mins.) and the fastest and slowest game each team played. The chart shows Minnesota had the fastest games on its home court (2:02.0), and Minnesota and Charlotte the fastest away (2:03.2) and Minnesota overall (2:02.6). Golden State was the slowest team at home (2:11.9), away (2:15.1) and overall (2:13.5). A triple overtime game (Portland at Seattle) was the longest game (3:11), while the fastest game of 1:46 was Minnesota at Houston. For the trivia fans adding all the 1107 games together would give you a total of 2364 hours and 34 minutes. The league average was 2:08.2 compared to 2:07.0 in 1989-90, 2:09.2 in 1988-89, 2:07.4 in 1987-88, 2:08.1 in 1986-87 and 2:07.2 in 1985-86.

ALL-TIME ANALYSIS OF NBA PLAYERS

Since the NBA began operations in the 1946-47 season, there have been 2322 different players who have appeared in at least one league game. Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan has done a thorough analysis of their careers, which turns up some interesting facts. The 2322 players have played a total of 9167 seasons which averages 3.95 seasons per player. They have played a total of 540,469 games, which averages 232.76 games per career. A total of 5,806,691 points have been scored in NBA history which averages 2500.73 points per career. Thus, the average NBA career spans 3 9/10 seasons, 233 games and 2501 points. 387 players performed in at least one regular season NBA game during the 1990-91 season, including 73 rookies playing their first season in the league.

A WILT RECORD THAT STILL STANDS

Everyone is familiar with the league record 100 points that Wilt Chamberlain scored in 1962 versus the Knicks, but it is not as widely known that he also holds the league record for assists (21) by a center. He achieved this figure Feb. 2, 1968 vs. Detroit. Maurice Cheeks equalled that figure to tie Wilt for the club mark on Oct. 30, 1982 vs. the Nets, but of course Cheeks is a guard.

ARCHIBALD'S UNIQUE FEAT

Nate (Tiny) Archibald is the only NBA player ever to lead the league in scoring and assists in the same season, averaging 33.9 points and 11.4 assists in 1972-73.

Duane Ferrell, 97 to 82, Kennard Winchester 34 to 33, Gerald Glass 54 to 48 and Cedric Ceballos 77 to 73 were the only other players with over 500 minutes to turn the trick. They also played for the 1972-73 76ers squad that compiled a 9-73 mark, the lowest in history.

DENVER BEST IN CLOSE GAMES, CHICAGO IN RUNAWAYS

The Denver Nuggets had the best percentage in 1990-91 games with 3-points or under final spreads, posting a 4-1 (80%) mark followed by Utah 8-3 (72.7%). The 76ers had the most wins (11) and played the most games (20). Sacramento had the worst record (2-6) followed by Charlotte (3-8). Chicago was the leader in games decided by 10 points or more with a 43-8 record. Denver was the worst at 6-43 while Miami engaged in the most games (54) in the category.

ASSISTS ANALYSIS 1990-91

Winning games in the NBA usually requires good shots and the ability to deliver the ball to the right player, in the right place, and at the right time can usually result in a good shot. Recording more assists in a game then the other team results in a win more than 7 of every 10 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan show that the team with more assists won 734 times and lost only 311 times for a percentage of .702. There were 62 games in which the teams recorded an equal number of assists. Boston, Houston and Portland compiled the best records in this phase of the game, while New York, Denver and New Jersey had the most trouble. Winning while recording fewer assists was difficult. Only Chicago, Portland and the LA Lakers could win over half of those games. Miami, Sacramento and Washington had the most trouble winning with fewer assists. Complete figures follow:

REBOUNDING ANALYSIS 1990-91

Rebounding is one of the key elements of basketball in the NBA where the winning team out-rebounds the loser nearly 2 out of every three games. The team with more rebounds won 700 times and lost 366 times for a percentage of .657, according to records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. There were 41 games in which the teams had an equal number of rebounds. These numbers almost exactly match the numbers recorded during the 1989-90 season. The best percentage belonged to Chicago, Portland and the LA Lakers. Sacramento, New Jersey and Denver had the most trouble winning games when gathering more rebounds. Winning games while being out-rebounded is a difficult task, but six teams, led by Portland, were able to win over half of those games. Having the most trouble winning when out-rebounded were Miami, Denver and Minnesota. Complete records follow:

SUNDRY RECORDS

Pat Riley, K.C. Jones and Bill Russell are the only three individuals who have played in the NCAA's championship game and also coached an NBA champion. Russell and Jones played together for San Francisco U and coached the Boston Celtics to the NBA title. Riley played at Kentucky and, of course, coached the Los Angeles Lakers.

KILLILEA LEADS ASSISTANTS IN SERVICE

An analysis of the longevity rates of assistant coaches from 1972-73 to 1989-90 shows in that 19 year period there have been 678 assistant coaching jobs occupied by 206 different individuals for an average career of 3.3 seasons. The 1972-73 season was the first in which assistant coaches totals reached double figures for the league (14). The previous year there were only 8 as the pre-1970 trend either was no assistant coach or at most one. Nowadays some teams have as many as three. The leader for this period is John Killilea with 17 years followed by Jim Rodgers and the late Jack McMahon each with 15 years. Other high totals are Bill Bertka and Frank Hamblen 14 each, and Bernie Bickerstaff and Al Bianchi 12 each.

DAVID ROBINSON TOPS PLAYER PRODUCTION RATINGS

One of the systems utilized in the NBA to determine a player's worth gives credit and minuses to players in 11 different categories. A player gets 20 points for a field goal, defensive rebound or an assist; 15 points for an offensive rebound, steal or blocked shot, and 10 points for a 3-point field goal or a free throw made. On the other hand he gets minus 20 for a turnover, and minus 10 for either a free throw missed or a field goal missed. You can add the points for each player in the 1990-91 season and rate them three ways — total points, points per game, and points per minute played (minimum 200 minutes). Below are the top 30 in each category and bottom 30 in minutes played.

MICHAEL ADAMS NO. 1 IN POINT PRODUCTION 1990-91

Someone suggested that the MVP is the one who is responsible for the most points in a game. A player would get 2 points for each assist. Then add all the points he scored to the points for assists and divide the total by the number of games he played to get his average points produced a game. Under this system Michael Adams was the winner, unseating John Stockton. Michael Jordan won in 1987-88 and 1988-89 while Magic Johnson was tops in 1985-86 and 1986-87.

WINNING WAYS — 1990-91

It is most important to get a good start in an NBA game and also have a strong finish, as has been the case in previous years. The team which leads at the end of the first quarter won almost 67% of the time, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Mich. The chart below shows which teams were best and which were not, at winning after leading at the end of one period. Chicago, San Antonio and Phoenix were best at winning games which they were trailing at the end of the first quarter. Winning the fourth quarter produced a victory almost 68% of the time. The chart below shows those results. The percentage could have been higher but on some occasions the winner had a solid lead in the final quarter and turned the game over to its bench to finish out. That point is illustrated by the fact that Portland and Detroit won 20 or more games in which they lost the fourth quarter and five other teams won 17 or more. The playoffs were similar to the regular season. The winning team won the first quarter almost 79% of the time and won the fourth quarter 59% of the time. On 14 occasions the loser won the 4th quarter and still lost the game by six or more points.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, New Jersey, won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on August 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However, his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

9 OF LAST 10 NBA CHAMPS HAD A JOHNSON ON ROSTER

NBA championships and the name Johnson have been a familiar combination since nine of the last 10 NBA titlists had a player named Johnson on the team. In fact, 12 out of the last 14 have had a Johnson, the lone misses being the 1980-81 Boston Kings, and last year's Chicago Bulls. There was Vinnie Johnson for Detroit in 1988-89 and 1989-90, Magic Johnson for the Lakers in 1987-88, 86-87, 84-85, 81-82 and 79-80. Dennis Johnson was a Boston Celtic in 85-86 and 83-84 and a Seattle Supersonic with John Johnson in 78-79. Reggie Johnson and Clemon Johnson played for the 82-83 Sixers and Charles Johnson for the 77-78 Washington Bullets. The only other Johnsons on title teams were Charles and George on the 74-75 Golden State team, Rich Johnson on the 68-69 Boston team and Arnie Johnson on the 50-51 Rochester Royals.
